ESTES PARK HEALTH JUNE 2023

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

BALANCE SHEET

Patient Receivables (line 13) increased by $949k indicative of increased revenue with the summer season.

There was a transfer of $$ 450 \mathrm{k}$ from investments (line 21) to cash (line 10).
Right of Use Lease Assets, Net (line 26) increased by $315k for new phone and printer leases. The increase in Long-Term Lease Liability (line 46) is also related to this.

Accrued Salaries (line 39) decreased by $$ 439 k$ due to timing of payroll.

INCOME STATEMENT

Net patient service revenue (line 22) is $100k favorable to budget for the month.
Employee benefits (line 31) is $$ 262 \mathrm{k}$ favorable to budget due to timing. There was a third payroll paid in June 2023.

Supplies (line 33) is $$ 128 \mathrm{k}$ unfavorable to budget due to increased supplies with increased patient volume.

Leases and Rentals (line 35) is favorable to budget due to the GASB 87 lease standard. These expenses were reclassed to Depreciation (line 38) and Interest Expense (line 47). As such, Depreciation and Interest Expense are unfavorable to budget for the month. EPH's budget did not reflect the change in accounting principle; however, the overall expense difference between the standards is minimal.

Total operating expenses (line 40) are favorable to budget by $$ 113 \mathrm{k}$ for the month and $1.9M for the year.

Increase in net position (line 58) is favorable to budget by $$ 126 \mathrm{k}$ for the month and $$ 715 \mathrm{k}$ for the year.

BOARD METRICS

There is a decrease in Days Cash from May to June of 6 days. This is due to three payrolls paid in June instead of the normal 2 per month.
